

1. The Park District is often criticized for needing to improve its intergovernmental cooperation. What would you do to improve Park District relationships with other local bodies?
2. After the current projects at Fishel Park, Barth Pond and McCollum Park have been completed, what do you see as the most pressing capital needs for the district?
3. What are MOU's and what is the purpose of them? Who benefits from them?
4. What is the status of the Sterling Park project? How would this be funded?
5. How should the Park District fund its services? How do user fees factor into funding its programs?
6. Given the multiple agencies in town and the shortage of field space, how do you address that problem and how do you fund any possible expansion?
7. With long time administrator Dan Cermak retiring, describe the qualities that you'll be looking for in a new Park District administrator?
8. What is the Park District's policy on land acquisition? What is your opinion of this policy?
9. What is your favorite park? Program?